

SAVE THE DATE

3rd Annual
Environmental Law and Justice Symposium
Florida A&M University - Tallahassee, FL

Nov. 1-3, 2012

“Climate Change and Global Food Security”

In partnership with Southeastern Green Network and Tallahassee Food Network

Rashid Nuri

Truly Living Well, Inc.

(Nov. 1 - Lunch Keynote Speaker)

Prof. Claudio Lutzky

University of Buenos Aires School of Law

(Nov. 2 - Opening Keynote Speaker)

The Symposium will also feature addresses from Mark Winne, Author and Founder, Food Security Coalitions; and Saleh Rahman, FAMU Institute of Public Health. The event will also showcase Community Garden Tours – French Town; Florida A&M University; Betton Hills; and Southwood Community Gardens.

Register Today: <https://secure.qgiv.com/for/famu/event/11173/>

Co-Sponsored by Florida A&M University's Environment, Development & Justice Program in the Center for International Law and Justice at the College of Law, and the Center for Environmental Equity and Justice at the School of the Environment